Dear Parishioners,

Can you believe that it is already August? The summer months seem to evaporate before us, and pretty soon we'll be gearing up for the school year and fall will be upon us.

This Sunday, August 4th, we welcome Bishop Coyne who will be installing me as Pastor at the 8am Mass at Blessed Sacrament and at the 1030am Mass at Most Holy Name of Jesus. This will be a first for me! I consider the timing of this to be a special grace because August 4th is the feast day of St. John Vianney, the patron saint of priests. I could not imagine a better day and a better saint to be praying for us in Heaven as we begin this new chapter together. St. John Vianney... pray for us!

With the thought of the beginning of the school year upon us, please also remember to register your children for religious education. What an important responsibility parents have to raise their children and pass on the faith to them! Parish religious education programs are designed to assist parents in the promise they made to God when they presented their children for baptism. We look forward to working together to strengthen the foundation of faith in the lives of our young ones.

Looking ahead, please remember August 15th is a Holy Day of Obligation as we celebrate the Assumption of our Blessed Mother into Heaven. This solemnity is so important for us to celebrate as it reminds us of one of the titles of Our Lady: Mary, Our Hope. With the burdens of life that we experience personally, compounded with the difficulties we face as a culture, we need reminders of where hope comes from and why we must not lose hope, especially as Christians. Please check the bulletins for Mass times and Fr. Joseph and I look forward to celebrating with you.

Lord God, We put ourselves into Your hands, and pray that You will bless us and our families during the wonderful months of summer. May we all help make our home a place of relaxation, joy, love, peace and safety. May we be generous and considerate, not thinking only about ourselves, but helping others enjoy the blessings of summertime. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen

God bless you and have a beautiful week!

With Mary, In Christ,

Fr. Jon
