Dear Parishioners,

Two significant things happen this week – the month of August comes to an end (sad face) and the school year begins! Although summer doesn't officially end until late September, it seems to have evaporated like the morning fog.

Bishop Marshall School will open this week to welcome students and families as the academic year begins. We pray for the Lord to bless the children, parents, faculty and staff at the commencement of this new year. On Wednesday, Fr. Joseph and I will celebrate the opening Mass for the school at 8:15am – community members are welcome!

You will also note the letter from Bishop Coyne in the Inland See bulletin insert regarding the crisis in the Church. With sobriety the Lord is moving his Church into greater transparency, even as acknowledging the reality of the past is painful. Let us continue to pray for the purification of the Church and the healing of the hearts and minds of God's holy people. Please take some time to read through it, as it's always so important to hear from our shepherd during these challenging times in our Church.

May Jesus our Lord bless and strengthen you this week as you seek to follow Him in the narrow way of the cross. Enjoy the last week of August!

With Mary In Christ,

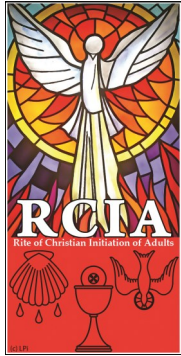

Fr. Jon
